What do this place...
...this place...
...and this place have in common?
Stockholm

- Capital of Sweden
- Population of around 2 million in the greater Stockholm area
- 1/3 water, 1/3 green areas, 1/3 urban
- Currency: Swedish krona (crown)
- Language: Swedish, English spoken widely
- Clean, modern, safe, beautiful
- “Venice of the North”
Stockholm University

- Founded 1878
- Over 50,000 students and 6,000 staff
- 4 faculties: Humanities, Law, Science, Social Science
- 2 main campuses at Frescati and Kräftriket; situated within a national urban park 10 minutes from downtown Stockholm

Photo: Stockholms universitet on Facebook
School of Business

- Founded 1962
- One of the largest departments at Stockholm University
- 3,500–4,000 students
- 100 faculty and staff; ca. 70 academic and 30 administrative. 50 Ph.D. students
- Kräftriket campus built 1912 – previously a veterinary college
Educational Programs

- “Civilekonomprogram” (4 years) – one of Sweden’s most applied-to programs; gives MSc in Business and Economics
- Bachelor programs (3 years)
  - New International Bachelor in Business and Political Science
- 4 Master Programs given in English
- Freestanding courses, levels I-IV (undergraduate/graduate)
- Executive MBA program (Swedish)
- Subject areas
  - Finance
  - Management/organization
  - Marketing
  - Accounting/financial control
Why study abroad at SUSB?

• A top Swedish business school with the opportunities of a large urban university
  – SU recently ranked 129th in the world by Times Higher Education

• Good connections to Swedish and international businesses

• Great social life for students and exchange students - buddy program

• Stockholm is safe, modern and beautiful

• Use English everywhere - pick up some Swedish if you like!

• A great starting point to explore the Nordic countries
Alumni

From left: Lars Nyberg, President and CEO, TeliaSonera; Fredrik Reinfeldt, current Prime Minister of Sweden; Annika Falkengren, CEO, SEB
Office of International Affairs

- Agreements with over 70 top universities from all over the world
- Undergraduate, graduate, Ph.D. and teacher exchange
- Dual degree program with Hong Kong Baptist University (MSc. and MBA)
- Ca. 150 combined incoming and outgoing exchange students per semester - increasing Thank you – tack så mycket!

Contact us:
international@fek.su.se
www.fek.su.se/en
www.facebook.com/susbinternational