

Postgraduate opportunities at Keele University for SDSU Students

All American students will be eligible for a 10% bursary for tuition. In addition, all students graduating from San Diego State University will be eligible for a further 15% bursary. Finally, if a previous exchange student from SDSU decides to go back to Keele for graduate study, they will be eligible for a 50% bursary. This means that for 2010/11 tuition would be approx. £4,700 (approx. US$7,500) for a returning exchange student.

In addition, for each year from 2010 onwards American students will be able to compete for the North American Keele University Foundation (NAFKU) scholarship. This will provide £3,750 towards living costs at Keele. Final Selection will be by members of the NAFKU Board.
